

John I. Sanders is the Head of International Capital Markets at Moore & Van Allen. John's practice focuses on equity and debt capital markets, mergers and acquisitions, private funds, and general corporate matters. He has extensive international experience advising Italian and other companies and financial institutions on cross-border offerings and acquisitions.

OVERVIEW   NOTABLE   NEWS

John is an accomplished attorney with a wealth of international experience and leads the firm's International Capital Markets practice. In that role, John sets the strategy for and coordinates the firm's capital market practice as it relates to the representation of investment banks and issuers in EMEA, Asia and Latin America.

Prior to joining MVA, he spent five years at a leading international law firm in Milan, Italy, where he honed his knowledge advising Italian issuers and financial institutions on complex international equity and debt capital market transactions under Rule 144A and Regulation S. In the equity capital markets area, John has successfully led initial public offerings, rights offerings, and block trade/accelerating bookbuildings. His debt capital markets experience includes successfully leading offerings of high yield bonds, privately placed debt, Yankee bonds, global medium-term notes, and commercial paper. He also advises international institutional investors with respect to their proprietary investments in private investment funds. John is a continuing member of EuroLegalNet and utilizes the network's offices when in Milan.

John is also a dedicated legal educator, serving as an Adjunct Professor at Wake Forest University School of Law, where he teaches courses on private investment funds, serving as corporate counsel, and drafting offering documents. His commitment to staying at the forefront of legal developments is evident in his articles that have been published in Wake Forest Law Review, Michigan Business & Entrepreneurial Law Review, Wake Forest Journal of Business and Intellectual Property Law, and American University Business Law Review.

Representative Experience

Team member experience prior to joining Moore & Van Allen

- Equity Capital Markets
- Debt Capital Markets
- Mergers and Acquisitions

Capabilities

Capital Markets

Direct Lending & Private Capital

Fund Finance

Investment Funds & Investment Management

Mergers & Acquisitions

Private Equity

Securities & Corporate Governance

Small Business Investment Companies

Education

Admissions